Peer tutors give thoughtful feedback on your writing, suggesting strategies for getting started and developing ideas. We'll help you become more careful readers, talking through assignments so you have a stronger plan for writing. We can take the mystery out of grammar, mechanics, and punctuation, teaching what you may have missed in high school. Whether you love writing or totally dread facing a blank screen, we strive to enhance your skills and confidence.

Informal, one-on-one tutorials to help you:

- ~ explore, organize, develop, research, and revise
- ~ summarize, interpret, and evaluate
- ~ develop better editing and proofreading skills
- ~ manage MLA, APA, or CHI documentation
- ~ get way beyond Google searches
- ~ gain perspective on assignments
- ~ build persuasive arguments
- ~ learn group work writing tips
- ~ practice effective style options
- ~ identify language conventions
