When reading There Are No Children Here, it is apparent that the people of Horner are stuck in a never-ending cycle of poverty. Why is it that LaJoe’s parents, LaJoe herself, her children, and her grandchildren are all living in the disparity of Horner?

PROMPT: In a well-developed four-paragraph essay, identify 2 factors that contribute to this cycle. Explain how each of these factors makes it difficult for the people of Horner to rise above the poverty and violence of their environment.

*You can fill out the graphic organizer BUT MUST write/type your ideas on a separate sheet of paper.

The format for your paragraph is as follows:

- Introduction Paragraph
  - Include an attention getter and Thesis statement

- 2 Body Paragraphs
  - Topic Sentence
  - Assertion 1
  - Evidence 1 (quotation)
  - Elaboration 1 (at least 3 sentences)
  - Assertion 2
  - Evidence 2 (quotation)
  - Elaboration 2 (at least 3 sentences)
  - Clincher Sentence

- Conclusion Paragraph
  - Sum up Thesis statement
  - Add Closure to the paper

Please pay close attention to your spelling, grammar, and documentation format. Also, remember to stay in the 3rd person point of view (i.e. NO I, you, me, we, our, us, etc…)

Good Luck! 😊
There Are No Children Here

You can use the graphic organizer for a rough draft or any prewriting, but your final draft must be typed out. You may use your book for textual evidence – be sure to cite properly.

In the introduction paragraph, you need to grab the reader’s attention...make the reader want to read your paper. Make the reader curious as to what your paper is about but DON’T reveal anything about the topic of your paper yet!

Here are the steps:

1. Start with a GENERAL IDEA for the Attention Getter.
2. Explain your Attention Getter (reword a definition, explain a quote, elaborate on the opening idea)
3. Connect the ideas of the Attention Getter to your Thesis Statement.
4. Present your THESIS STATEMENT.

Attention Getter: (Description, Personal Experience, Famous Quotation or Saying, Summary, Definition)

Explain your Attention Getter: (1-2 Sentences)

Connect the ideas of the Attention Getter to the topic of the essay and/or literature (w/title and author):

THESIS STATEMENT: (Last sentence, one sentence, preview paragraph ideas)
In the conclusion paragraph, you need to draw upon new ideas about your Attention Getter; wrap the paper up so that it is finished, well summarized, and gives the reader something to think about.

Here are the steps:

1. Restate, but do not repeat, your thesis statement.
2. Summarize the ideas in the paper.
3. Connect your thesis ideas, and what you revealed in your essay to your introductory Attention Getter.
4. (OPTIONAL): End with a new question, thought, or idea.
5. Conclusion Paragraph MUST be at least 4 sentences.

Restate Thesis Statement/Summarize Essay Ideas: (do not repeat; use your language skills)

Connect your essay back to the original Attention Getter idea of the introduction paragraph:

(OPTIONAL) New question, thought, or idea to leave the reader with:
