

Task #6: Each day students' will journal on the activities

Standard: C2, C1, P1

Procedure:

Students will be asked to journal everyday on the topic being discussed and writing ideas down for their bulletin boards. Also, students will continually attempt to answer the enduring questions throughout the lessons. These questions are, how does conflict cause change in social health? Why does conflict change ones social health? How does prejudice and discrimination change a person's social health?

Criteria:

- Students have attempted to make connections to enduring understanding questions.
- Students have done daily entries
- Students have gathered ideas for the bulletin board

	5	3	1
Connections (x3)	All entries have made connections to enduring understandings	Some entries have made connections to enduring understandings	Few entries have made connections to enduring understandings
Completion	Everyday has been entered	Almost everyday has been entered	Less than half have been entered
Bulletin Board	Clear labeling of ideas for bulletin board	Somewhat clear labeling of ideas for bulletin board	Unclear labeling of ideas for bulletin board