Task

To build your authority on the topic of medieval life in England, you will complete research on a particular topic. You will practice research skills while cooperatively learning and teaching background information about the medieval period. Your report should show evidence of your efforts to unearth new material and reflect your ability to extract what is important and present it to the class in an interesting manner. You should be able to present a version of your report during Medieval Fest!

Requirements:

A. Oral presentation of five to seven minutes of solid material
B. Detailed outline of information turned in 3 days prior to presentation
C. Handout to teach the class information turned in 1 day prior to presentation—this should not be a copy of your outline but an organized summary of important information (including difficult names and dates) that they should remember
D. Annotated bibliography due at the time of the report including at least 5 sources
E. Any educational handouts, maps, diagrams, and illustrative material printed or copied that will enhance your presentation
