

Task

Test on Area

After receiving their graded test back, students will be asked to complete a summary statement which summarizes what they have learned about area and what they already know about applications of area. They are asked to record their strengths and weaknesses with respect to calculating area and set some goals for the remainder of the unit. This might include what they would like to learn more about.