Number circled indicates rating for each of five requirements of artifact presentation.

Most of the time—5 points
Some of the time—3 points
Rarely—1 point

Four and two ratings may be given for students who fall between three main ratings of 5, 3, or 1.

I also use the oral rating sheet on facing page for all presentations with my ELL students. It helps me to determine how their oral language is developing, including pronunciation, grammar, fluency, and comprehension.
