Journal Information Sheet

Remember to write in your journals at least three times per week so you have enough entries at the end of the quarter. Bring your journal with you every day to class. Include the following heading on the top line of each entry:

Date    Title of novel    Page at time of entry

In my journal I am using the following colors to highlight:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>HIGHLIGHTER COLOR</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Summaries</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Predictions</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Connections</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Inferences</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Questions</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Reflections

When you go back to highlight your journal, you also need to take the time to look through your entries and decide which ones you think are your best work. You will then complete a reflection sheet for those entries and staple the sheet to the entry.
Journal Reflection:

This is one of my favorite/best journal entries because

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

In this entry I used (circle)

Summaries  Predictions  Connections  Inferences  Questions

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

This is one of my favorite/best journal entries because

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

In this entry I used (circle)

Summaries  Predictions  Connections  Inferences  Questions